

North Korean Defector Reveals Secret Kim Jong Un Atrocities

A defector from North Korea has shared some of the horrifying sights she observed while living in the reclusive country.

Hee Yeon Lim, 26, told The Mirror that her father was a senior government officer under Kim Jong Un and shared some of the unimaginable details of what reportedly goes on inside of the country: executions, sex slavery and plenty of other atrocities.

Lim, whose name was changed for her protection, said that she knew from an early age never to question Kim Jong Un's father, Kim Jong II. She lived a privileged life in North Korea due to her dad's position, but told The Mirror that she still witnessed horrors. {eoa}

Read the rest of the story from our content partners at Faithwire.