

Nothing Short of a Miracle: Viral Photo Proves Saving Power of God

A mother in Pennsylvania is crediting God—and her car seats—for keeping her young children safe after a horrific car accident.

On Tuesday, Jenna Casado Rabberman posted a photo showing her badly totaled Honda CRV—crumpled up like an accordion—next to two perfectly intact car seats.

Rabberman wrote that that sons, ages 3 years and 6 weeks—were in the car when they stopped for milk on the way home from preschool on Monday and a car slammed into them. {eoa}

Click here to read the rest of this story from our content partners at Faithwire!