

Pastor Guillermo Maldonado to Host 'Revival USA' Summer Events, Ushering Spiritual Awakening

Internationally known pastor, apostolic leader and author Guillermo Maldonado will lead two major events this summer outside of Salt Lake City, Utah, and in Upper Marlboro, Maryland, called "Revival USA," with musical by New Wine, the acclaimed bilingual worship band.

As senior pastor of King Jesus International Ministries, one of the world's largest and fastest-growing multicultural ministries, Guillermo Maldonado has spent decades drawing tens of thousands to stadium-sized evangelistic events throughout Central and South America and other Spanish-speaking nations, with a focus on the supernatural power of God to heal, deliver and save. He now aims to help usher in spiritual revival across the United States.

"The Lord spoke to me about bringing revival in America," Maldonado says. "The purpose of this revival is to bring a spiritual awakening for so many and prepare them for the second coming of Jesus. Revival comes with miracles, salvation, deliverance and transformation of the heart, creating great impact on each person who attends Revival USA."

The events are free, and will be featured in Spanish and English. For more information, visit .

The first event will take place July 16-17 at the Davis Conference Center. The address is 1651 N 700 W, Layton, Utah, 84041. Free tickets are available here.

The second event will be held August 13-14 at the Evangel

Cathedral. The address is 13901 Central Avenue Upper Marlboro, Maryland, 20774. Free tickets are available here. {eoa}
