

Pastor Jack Hibbs Rally Pushes Back Against Evil California Bill

Pastor Jack Hibbs pushed back against the brutal AB-495 bill at the Sacramento Capitol in California with droves of other Christians.

Hibbs organized a rally at the California State Capitol in Sacramento where the name of Jesus was lifted up on high and dark politics was fought. If the bill were to be passed, it could allow strangers the right to take guardianship of other people's children. On social media, Hibbs highlighted the success of the rally, stating that AB-495 is now "in suspense."

Thank you, Lord, for an incredible day and turnout as we rallied together in Sacramento at the Capitol against AB 495.

Thank you to all who came out to let your voices be heard, and to those who prayed for today!

AB 495 has now been put into suspense, but this DOES NOT mean that the fight is over.

During his morning daily prayer, Hibbs gave glory to God for what took place at the Capitol, and noted that yesterday was also Calvary Chapel Chino Hills' 35 year anniversary.

"I want to thank all of you also for so many of you coming to the rally up in Sacramento yesterday. It was more than a success. God amplified it. God blessed it. People came," says Hibbs. "The Lord was working in it."
