

Pastor's Daughter Stabbed to Death in Her Apartment

Christine Huh, 23, was stabbed to death earlier this week by a 16-year-old.

"She's in a better place, no fears, no pain," pastor Daeho Kim said at the funeral. "Satan, you picked the wrong family to pick on, you picked the wrong church to pick on."

Huh, the daughter of Praise Presbyterian senior pastor Bong Kee Huh, was found stabbed in an apartment where she was allegedly visiting a friend. Reports say she knew her alleged killer.

"Our whole congregation is devastated," Kim tells . "She had a wonderful sense of humor and was great supporter of the church and her family."

Please lift this family up in your prayers.
