

Powerful Worship Breaks Out at the White House Ahead of Resurrection Sunday

Praise and worship are filling the halls of the White House during Holy Week.

During an Easter luncheon in the East Wing of the White House, a group of Christian leaders gathered to praise and honor Jesus, including through a remarkable rendition of “The Old Rugged Cross.”