

PRAY: Hikers Disappear as Severe Flooding Slams the Grand Canyon

At least one person is dead and more than a dozen are missing after flash flooding overwhelmed a remote area of the Grand Canyon on Saturday, according to National Park Service officials.

“The National Park Service is asking the public to provide information for more than 20 individuals who may be missing or unaccounted for following a significant flash flood in Bright Angel Canyon and the Phantom Ranch area on August 29,” reads a Facebook post from the Grand Canyon National Park.
