

Prayer Leaders Call for Election Day Intercession

Election Day has arrived, and national intercessory prayer leaders have joined forces to help throw a shield of prayer to cover our nation during the election and until 6 a.m. EST Wednesday.

Dave Butts of the National Prayer Committee, Dave Kubal of Intercessors for America and Sara Bellenger of Capitol Hill Intercessors have teamed up to lead 24 hours of continuous prayer for our nation.

In addition, Eagles' Wings, a global missional community with a network of diverse relationships, has been asked to provide the intercession for this strategic prayer call regarding Israel—to pray that God would put into office at all levels of government those leaders who will be rightly aligned to His heart and His plans for Israel.

Individuals are encouraged to call (712) 432-0075, access code 1412452#, between 11 a.m. and noon EST Tuesday to pray that leaders be elected who stand firmly with Israel and who bring God's blessing on America.
