

'Praying for Kansas City': 1 Dead, 8 Children Among 22 Shot at Chiefs' Super Bowl Parade

A Super Bowl celebration for the Kansas City Chiefs came to a tragic end Feb. 14, as gunfire erupted at the parade leaving one person dead and at least 21 others injured, including eight children.

NEW: The man who tackled a shooter at the Kansas City Chiefs parade speaks out, says he didn't hesitate when he saw the shooter running by.

Hero!

"I didn't hesitate. It was just do it. So I went to go tackle him and another gentleman did the same thing and as I'm tackling him,...

– Collin Rugg (@CollinRugg) February 15, 2024

Police have taken three people into custody.

Nearly a million people had gathered to celebrate the Kansas City Chiefs at a homecoming victory rally at Union Station. And then, shots fired.

Breaking News. Spirit-Filled Stories. Subscribe to Charisma on YouTube now!

The gunfire began just as the Super Bowl champs were leaving the stage.

Praying for Kansas City...

– Patrick Mahomes II (@PatrickMahomes) February 14, 2024

“All of a sudden people started crushing forward, everybody started running. There was screaming. We didn’t know what was happening but when people run you run,” said one witness.

Officers with guns drawn were seen running through the crowd. One video appeared to show Chiefs fans chasing a suspect and taking him down. While another video showed law enforcement tackling a different person to the ground.

Get your FREE CHARISMA NEWSLETTERS today! Stay up-to-date with current issues, Holy Spirit news, Christian teachings, Charisma videos & more!

One person, 44-year-old Lisa Lopez Galvan, a mother of two, beloved local disc jockey and diehard Chiefs fan, died during surgery after being shot. Multiple others were injured.

First responders treated victims on the ground while ferrying numerous patients on stretchers to waiting ambulances.{eo}

To read the full story, visit our content partners at CBN News.

Reprinted with permission from . Copyright © 2024 The Christian Broadcasting Network Inc. All rights reserved.

Join Charisma Magazine Online to follow everything the Holy Spirit is doing around the world!