

Pro-Life Activists Represent Aborted Babies With ‘Die-in’

(Reuters/Kevin Lamarque)

A Right to Life activist draped in a red sash takes part a “die-in” to represent the alleged 55 million children who have died from abortions in the U.S. during a protest at the White House in Washington, D.C., on Monday. The day marks the 39th anniversary of the Supreme Court’s landmark Roe v. Wade decision.