

Pro-Life Advocate Shares How Adoption Makes a Prophetic Statement Against the Enemy

Natalie Brumfield says when you foster or adopt a child, you're prophetically decreeing an end to abortion and the restoration of families.

Brumfield is a fierce pro-life and adoption advocate, serving as the chapter leader of Bound4LIFE Birmingham in addition to her work with local churches, prayer ministries and pregnancy centers.

In this special episode of the Charisma News podcast, brought to you by Quartermaster Stewardship, Brumfield shares how the Father's heart is for adoption and rebukes the orphan spirit.
