

Prophecy: What to Know Before Going into 2025

Is the Lord speaking something to His people for 2025?

In a powerful message, Jeremiah Johnson gave a word to the people of God for what to expect in the year 2025.

For many Christians, God has placed dreams, blueprints and designs in their heart that seem to have been placed on hold, left delayed for a later time. However, one of the things Johnson believes will happen in this coming year is that those plans will no longer be placed on hold.

“The Lord is beginning to show me that there are things that many of you have put on the shelf,” Johnson says. “There are projects and there are things that God has called many of us to do that we have pushed aside. There’s been a delay. There’s been a setback, whether it be by the hand of the enemy or we have just felt like the Holy Spirit has told us to pull back...”

Johnson declares that what was delayed this year and even for the past four years will no longer be pushed to the backburner. Instead, the time of fulfillment is coming. This is the time for God’s people to get busy building His kingdom for His glory.

“The Lord says, ‘In the next five years in the earth, is this not a season to build? Is this not a season to get established? Is this not a season, says the Lord, where a spirit of Goshen will fall upon my people?’” Johnson prophesies.

Johnson believes divine fulfillment is just around the corner for what God has spoken to many of His people about.

"Those blueprints and those plans that you set aside for a later time, the Lord says, 'Even as you enter into this year 2025, now is the time,'" he says. "I hear the Spirit of the Lord say, 'Now is the time to build. For there is a divine window of mercy that has been opened up over America.'"

Johnson prophesies that the people of God will be rooted firmly on the Word, abiding in Jesus' streams of living water, bringing forth much fruit for the Lord's kingdom.

"You will not be resisted into 2025, but that you will succeed," says Johnson. "For there's a spirit of declare a new day, America. I declare a new beginning, America."

Johnson says that in 2025, the green light is on for the things that have been on pause.

"It's time to plant the churches in 2025. It's time to start the businesses in 2025," he says. "The Lord is bringing divine 's something that's been delayed. There's something that's been pushed to the side. There's something that's been postponed and the Lord is saying, 'No longer.'"

This coming year, 2025, will be the year to begin building, establishing the plans and the purposes that God has for each of His children.

"There is a baptism of courage needed for 2025. There is a baptism of do not fear needed for 2025."
