

Prophecy: Why the Church Must Pray for President Trump

Within just the first couple of months of the new year, the Spirit of the Lord is issuing a clear and urgent warning to the body of Christ: prayer warriors and intercessors must not grow weary but instead rise up in greater fervency for Donald Trump's second term as president.

In a new prophetic warning video, Jeremiah Johnson discusses why the body of Christ must not give up on praying for the president. While many have labored in intercession for his election, the battle is far from over. The Lord is calling His people to stand guard, for the enemy has devised schemes to disrupt God's plans through demonic attacks, political upheaval and even assassination attempts.

"Listen, the demonic threats are real," Johnson says. "They're ready to be fully launched, but God is more powerful and through the faith and action of committed believers, I believe that the presidency and the nation will be kept safe."

Trump: A Wartime President

Prophetically, Trump has been positioned as a wartime president. This is not a season of peace and prosperity as we may think of it, but one of global conflict and spiritual warfare. The nations are in turmoil, and God has appointed Donald Trump to make crucial, high-stakes decisions that will impact the course of history. As believers, we must petition heaven for divine wisdom to be imparted to him so that he leads with discernment in the midst of these turbulent times.

The Enemy's Tactics: Pride, Control and Assassination

The Lord has revealed specific demonic attacks being plotted against Trump to prophetic voices like Jeremiah Johnson, which include pride, arrogance and control. If he is not vigilant, these spiritual forces could hinder his ability to walk in humility before God and the nation.

Additionally, assassination attempts remain a grave and immediate threat. The church must intercede for a supernatural hedge of protection over him, his family and his administration. The battle is raging, and complacency is not an option.

"There are demonic strategies being developed against him, and we must pray for supernatural, divine shield of protection around Donald Trump's life, his family and those who labor with him," Johnson says.

Rise of the Daniel Company

Now, more than ever, Trump needs the support of what Johnson calls the 'Daniel Company'—prophetic voices who will stand in holiness, intercede with wisdom and provide Godly counsel in critical moments.

Johnson says God revealed to him that Benjamin Netanyahu is a key figure in this company, playing an integral role in advising Trump as he navigates the challenges ahead. The purpose of this relationship is to help ensure that Trump does not become a Nebuchadnezzar, consumed by pride and power, but instead remains steadfast in fulfilling God's purposes.

The spiritual battle waging against the Trump administration will only continue to intensify now that they have taken office. This means that the church must not shrink back in fear but instead press forward in faith, understanding that we are part of a divine mandate to shift the spiritual atmosphere.

Let us remain steadfast, unwavering and filled with the power of the Holy Spirit, knowing that victory belongs to the Lord and that His plans for America will not be thwarted because greater is He who lives in us than he who lives in this world.
