

Protests Against Planned Parenthood Gain Momentum

Priests for Life is one of the national co-sponsoring groups organizing and promoting rallies against Planned Parenthood across the country on Aug. 22. The same day, will launch a national week of prayer and fasting to end abortion and the evils of Planned Parenthood.

Priests for Life African-American Outreach and the National Black Pro-life Coalition will have representatives at the Atlanta rally praying and sharing abortion testimonies.

Alveda King, director of PFL AAO said, "Through the years, AAO has led prayer vigils to end abortion and close the killing centers."

On Aug. 22, members will be in front of Planned Parenthood, 220 Cobb Parkway North, Marietta, Georgia 30062. The protest will be 1 of over 300 protests taking place on 47 states across America.

Rev. Walter Hoya of and said, "Understanding the place, the purpose and the power of prayer in the lives of Christians, the National Black Pro-Life Coalition joins Alveda King in the fight for the civil rights of the most vulnerable among us."

King concluded, "In light of current PPH expose videos by The Center for Medical Progress, we clearly know that our prayers are needed more than ever. There will be prayer vigils all across America Saturday. Please join us in Marietta or take part in a city near you. Wherever you are, if you can't physically make it, please pray with us! For more information on the protests and to find a location near you, go to ."