

Rabbi Kirt Schneider: A Warning for 2025

What should we be wary of for 2025?

In an exclusive interview with Charisma Media, Rabbi Kirt Schneider explained the need for spiritual discernment and wisdom in this present age.

Schneider first detailed a vision he had where he saw into the spirit world and saw two spirits: One of light and one of darkness. He believes this vision may have implications for the direction our world is heading into today.

"I saw a spirit of white life," says Schneider. "The spirit of white life was sealed. It was shaped like an egg. It appeared to be about three feet long, maybe about a foot-and-a-half high, every part of it was pulsating with life. Every part of it was pulsating with life. Every part of the sealed, self-contained spirit of white life that was shaped like an egg was in motion. It was continuously bubbling up newness of life. It was everlasting life."

Schneider says he believes this was the spirit of life, and that while he was able to see this spirit of life, he also saw darkness everywhere outside of this light.

"The spirit of life was sealed and self-contained, but all around that spirit of white life was darkness on the outside of it," says Schneider. "Darkness was alive. It wasn't just the absence of was a living darkness. The interesting [thing] is the darkness moved in a completely different way than the spirit of life moved, and I could see the texture of the darkness, the fabric of it was completely different than the spirit of white life.”

Schneider says he believes this vision connects to the events we have been witnessing, where Satan is actively trying his best to steal, kill and destroy, ultimately aiming to bring about a final destruction filled with chaos.

“We are more and more seeing the fabric of society being torn down,” he says. “Particularly now through the breakthrough of AI.”

Schneider believes artificial intelligence will continue to be exploited by the enemy for dark purposes.

...he [the enemy] uses these tools to bring man into the outer darkness and this is exactly what's going to be happening with AI. AI, although it's an incredible tool, is going to be used of the devil to create such misinformation that people won't know what is true and what's not true anymore. We're already experiencing that, but beyond that as people are more and more connected to the internet and all the things that are coming to us through the internet, man is being drawn out of abiding in the seat of his own soul, which is where God fellowships with us at, and man is being brought out of that into that outer, pseudo world of internet is all a prelude for the final destruction that Satan is seeking to bring upon the world.

Schneider also says that as important as it is for us to be open to the gifts of the Spirit and to lean into the prophetic, Christians must not constantly chase after the next prophetic word.

“There’s such an unquenchable, insatiable desire amongst many of God’s people for the next prophetic word,” Schneider says. “The purpose of prophecy is to lead us to Jesus and to make sure that we’re ready to meet Him. We can’t be giving all our time and energy to watch the next YouTube prophetic word and then the next one without actually getting ready to meet the Lord which happens by studying God’s written Word, living by it, crucifying the flesh, living by the Spirit, picking up our cross, living a life of obedience by the grace of the Spirit to the best of our ability, fighting the fight...”

With 2025 in full swing, we need to exercise biblical discernment and wisdom regarding the actions we take, the media we consume and the ways the Lord desires to speak to each individual heart and mind.
