

Red Heifer: Is This the Final Piece of the Puzzle for the Coming 3rd Temple?

In a powerful conversation, Joe Horn and Mondo Gonzales discussed the prophetic significance of the red heifer and its connection to the Third Temple in Israel—a key event many believe is looming on the horizon as part of end-times prophecy.

The red heifer, mentioned in the Old Testament as essential for purification rituals, has recently captured the attention of believers, especially after the identification of five eligible red heifers in 2022.

This ritual, which is needed for the rebuilding of the Temple, is viewed by many as a major sign that the end times are drawing near.

Horn and Gonzales emphasized that while the red heifer's appearance is closely linked to the rebuilding of the Temple, which some believe must happen before the return of Jesus, Christians should remember that Jesus' sacrifice on the cross already fulfilled the need for sacrifices.

Nevertheless, the geopolitical situation surrounding Israel—the nation's relationships with countries like Saudi Arabia and Iran—will play a pivotal role in the fulfillment of prophecy.
