

Reinhard Bonnke, Daniel Kolenda Embrace New Gospel Platform

Good News With Reinhard Bonnke and Daniel Kolenda is a brand-new television series exclusive to GOD TV that began airing Monday, Sept. 5, 2016, at 7 p.m. Eastern. The show will air daily Monday through Friday on GOD TV, a network said to be available in over 260 million homes in the United States, Europe, Israel, India, South Africa, Australia and more countries around the world.

Reinhard Bonnke, the Founder of Christ for all Nations (CfaN), has seen over 75 million decisions for Christ during his ministry of over 50 years and counting. The massive global reach afforded by broadcasting Good News on GOD TV is hoped to inspire millions more to know and accept the Word of God. The TV show will present Christianity in an easy-to-understand manner, meant to be relevant even to those who don't yet know God.

Evangelist Daniel Kolenda announced the show with enthusiasm: "We'll be preaching the gospel and bringing rich revelation from God's Word. I know we'll be a blessing to you and I look forward to seeing you every day on GOD TV."

Viewers can submit questions that evangelist Reinhard Bonnke and evangelist Kolenda will work to address on air. Questions can be submitted via this online form or by emailing them to goodnews@. Prayer requests are also being accepted online by the CfaN and GOD TV teams.

Evangelist Bonnke and evangelist Kolenda are thrilled to join other noteworthy evangelists and Christian leaders being broadcast 24 hours a day on GOD TV and are overjoyed to continue spreading the gospel to millions on what will now be a daily basis.