

Report Ranks This University as America's Best Online Christian College

Regent University has been named the No. 1 Online Christian College in America, according to a new report by . The report measured academics, affordability and return on investment among 100 Christian colleges in the United States.

"We are honored and thankful for this incredible recognition as the top online Christian college in the nation," said Dr. Bill Hathaway, executive vice president for academic affairs at Regent University. "As the preeminent destination for Christian college students, Regent is deeply dedicated to providing world-class, Christ-centered education that equips Christian leaders to change the world."

In addition to this accolade, Regent University is ranked the No. 1 Best Accredited Online College in the United States (, 2020), the No. 1 Safest College Campus in Virginia (YourLocalSecurity, 2021) and the No. 1 Best Online Bachelor's Program in Virginia for nine years in a row (U.S. News & World Report, 2021).

Regent University students enjoy:

- More than 150 areas of study including business, communication, counseling, cybersecurity, divinity, education, government, law, leadership, music, nursing, health care and psychology.
- Affordable tuition and generous financial aid. Regent's annual tuition is nearly $20,000 less than that of other private institutions (U.S. News & World Report, 2020).
- Flexible eight-week and 15-week courses offered online and on campus in Virginia Beach, Virginia.

- Expert faculty who genuinely care for and pray for each student.
- One-on-one coaching, counseling, tutoring and mentorship opportunities.

Many prospective students strive to pursue their higher education within a faith-based community that can provide the spiritual support they desire,” said a spokesperson from . “Regent University boasts affordable tuition rates and reputable academic programs, with both traditional and online degrees available for those who prefer distance learning.”

According to , the study analyzed data from the U.S. Department of Education and the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics to rank the top 100 Christian colleges in America based on return on tuition investment, quality of academics and affordability to help students determine which online Christian college is the best fit for their academic goals.

To learn more about Regent University, visit .

Read articles like this one and other Spirit-led content in our new platform, CHARISMA PLUS.