Robert Morris Indicted: Here's What You Should Know

Former Gateway megachurch pastor Robert Morris has been indicted in the state of Oklahoma.

According to the Associated Press, the charges against Morris include five counts of lewd or indecent acts with a child. This comes as a result after he admitted to the alleged abuse acts brought against him by Cindy Clemishire last June. According to Clemishire, the events began when she was only 12-years-old, continuing for four years.

Breaking News. Spirit-Filled Stories. Subscribe to Charisma on YouTube now!

Attorney General Gentner Drummond said in a statement, "There can be no tolerance for those who sexually prey on case is all the more despicable because the alleged perpetrator was a pastor who exploited his position. The victim in this case has waited far too many years for justice to be done."

//

Clemishire released a statement on Morris' indictment stating, "After almost 43 years, the law has finally caught up with Robert Morris for the horrific crimes he committed against me as a , it is time for the legal system to hold him accountable."

Get your FREE CHARISMA NEWSLETTERS today! Stay up to date with current issues, Holy Spirit news, Christian teachings, Charisma videos & more!

Clemishire also believes that "justice will ultimately prevail."

This comes as Morris and other members of Gateway filed a class action lawsuit related to the church's money-back guaranteed tithing policy.

As this case continues to unfold, pray for Gateway Church, for Cindy Clemishire and for Robert Morris' family during this time. Above all, pray that God's truth, goodness and light would triumph.

Join Charisma Magazine Online to follow everything the Holy Spirit is doing around the world!

Abby Trivett is content development editor for Charisma Media.