

'Salute to America': Celebrating 250 Years of American Independence

For this year's Independence Day, Freedom 250 will present "Salute to America," celebrating America's 250th anniversary with elaborate storytelling, patriotic performances, and the largest firework show in history.

The patriotic event aims to unify Americans with a renewed and shared love for the nation's founding history, beginning at 1 pm, July 4th, at the Washington, D.C. National Mall.

To order Troy Anderson's book, Designated Disrupter, visit .

"Salute to America," is not the only 4th of July event held at the National Mall.

The Great American State Fair will also showcase family-friendly attractions, movie screenings, musical performances, military ensembles and more, all commemorating America.

Going beyond the National Mall, the U.S. Department of the Interior partnered with the Freedom 250 Commission and the White House to initiate over $345 million to preserve and restore America's most historic sites, "Celebrating the Triumph of the American Spirit."

To read the full story, visit our content partners at CBN News.

Reprinted with permission from . Copyright © 2026 The Christian Broadcasting Network Inc. All rights reserved.