

Samaritan's Purse Aids Israel In Their Time of Need

The global Christian relief organization Samaritan's Purse has stepped in to provide critical aid to Israeli communities affected by the ongoing war in Gaza, including donating armored ambulances and supplying essential items to displaced families. The organization, led by Rev. Franklin Graham, is replacing 14 ambulances destroyed in attacks and continues to armor others to protect first responders and citizens near Gaza.

"They did not have enough armored ambulances," Graham says in an interview with Fox News, explaining the urgent need for the life-saving vehicles. "We were able to dedicate these ambulances in God's name to His glory." The new ambulances, along with trauma centers and therapy services for children affected by terrorism, are crucial in aiding those directly impacted by violence.

Graham emphasizes that these acts of charity are inspired by God and reflect His love for Israel. "As I tell everyone, these come from God. In times of trouble, we need to turn to God. We need to look to Him," Graham says, on the need for Christians to stand with Israel in prayer and action, especially during times of conflict.

Beyond ambulances, Samaritan's Purse is providing thousands of gift cards to displaced Israelis who cannot return to their homes due to rocket attacks. These cards allow people to purchase essentials from local stores, restoring a semblance of normalcy. "The big thing is these gift cards," Graham explains. "It really helps them to live and to try to have some kind of a normal life. Right now, there is nothing normal there."

Graham urges his fellow Christians worldwide to continue supporting Israel. "We just need to stand behind Israel and have their back during this very difficult time," he said.

The Bible is quite clear on the importance of blessing Israel. Genesis 12:3 reveals the covenant God made with Abraham saying, "I will bless those who bless you, and curse him who curses you; and in you all families of the earth will be blessed." Christians are called to support Israel, especially during hardship, aligning with God's promises.

By providing ambulances, trauma services and gift cards, Samaritan's Purse exemplifies this biblical mandate, and sets itself up as a practical example on how Christians can assist the nation of Israel.
