

Sean 'Diddy' Combs Arrested on Long List of Charges

Sean 'Diddy' Combs was taken into custody by federal agents Monday in New York City, with a charge list that makes one's skin crawl.

The offenses he is being accused are reprehensible in nature and include "racketeering conspiracy, sex trafficking by force, fraud or coercion and transportation to engage in prostitution" according to the indictment which was unsealed on Tuesday.

US District Attorney Damian Williams held a press conference regarding the investigation:

"Now I want to be clear about two things. First, this office is determined to investigate and prosecute anyone who engages in sex trafficking, no matter how powerful or wealthy or famous you may be," Williams says.

"Second, we are not done. This investigation is ongoing, and I encourage anyone with information about this case to come forward and to do it quickly."

Combs has been the focal point of lawsuits and raids by Homeland Security for some time now.

As Charisma News previously reported, "the raids are in response to a series of sex-trafficking allegations made against Combs, in addition to a recent string of lawsuits that allege the entrepreneur also committed sexual assault along with additional cases of trafficking."

There was a notable list of celebrities named in the lawsuit against Combs, prominent among them was that of Bishop T.D. Jakes.

Jakes has continuously denied any involvement in Combs' wild parties, something Combs has become known for over the years, and James' representatives have called previous accusations to be "unequivocally false and baseless."

Almost one year prior to Combs' arrest, nearly to the day, he was granted a key to the city of New York by Mayor Eric Adams.

News like this, about people who wield immense power and influence in America, highlights clearly the need for prayer and spiritual warfare over this nation.

Christians must fast and pray over our nation, while going out into the culture and showing people in real-time the love of Jesus they so desperately need. Because without it, these types of stories are going to become normalized, and we will sink ever deeper into sin that resembles the days of Noah.
