

Shocking 'Are You Really Saved?' Paul Washer in Critical Condition After Massive Heart Attack

HeartCry Missionary Society founder Paul Washer suffered a heart attack Monday night, according to the organization's Facebook page.

"Last night, Bro. Paul suffered a heart attack. He is in critical condition, though currently stable. More updates to follow here and on his Twitter account. Please pray for him and for his family!" HeartCry posted Tuesday morning.

Washer founded HeartCry in Peru. The missions organization has spread across the world.

Prayers for Washer have poured in from around the globe via social media.

"Blessed to see the Church crying out to the Lord for @PaulWasher's health, family, & ministry longevity. May Lord restore this Gospel lion," one person tweeted.

Another wrote: "Please join us in praying for our Brother, @PaulWasher, today. God will be glorified in this! #PaulWasher #Christian #Faith."

HeartCry says the ministry will post updates on its Facebook page, as well as on Washer's Twitter account. {eoa}
