

Shocking Study Unveils the Spiritual Condition of the Church

A shocking new study has revealed the true spiritual condition of the modern church. What's contained inside, while heartbreaking, is not surprising.

As Harbinger's Daily discussed, Barna has released a new study showcasing that "...half of those who described themselves as Christians didn't believe that Satan exists, and one-third were confident that Jesus sinned while He was on earth."

This means that an incredibly large number of self-professed Christians are completely unaware of what the Bible says about the very basics of the religious faith upon which they supposedly have rooted their lives.

"Our biblical IQ, if you will, never has been lower," Harbinger's Daily notes.

So, what does this say about the future of the church?

In 2024, Bible sales skyrocketed.

Perhaps because we are at an all-time low on the knowledge of the Bible, we also are at an all-time high when it comes to panic, anxiety and fear.

Evangelical Christian Publishers Association president, Jeff Crosby, previously said, ““People are experiencing anxiety themselves, or they’re worried for their children and grandchildren.”

With this type of uncertainty concerning the future and the knowledge of Scriptural basics at a low, this could very well be the good grounds we need for the massive end times harvest. Now is the moment for those who have not known God to come to know Him, and for those who claim to know Him to truly turn to Jesus.

So, the question is: are you ready to dive deeper to experience the presence of God?
