

Shocking Truth About Israel, Nuclear Threats and What Christians Must Do to Prepare!

As the world grows darker, with societal chaos and moral decline, there's a growing need for a faithful, bold proclamation of the gospel. Rabbi Schneider, in his powerful reflections on Daystar, urges believers to understand the times we are currently living in, and what signs we need to take notice of that demonstrate a coming Antichrist.

Schneider asserts that in these last days, it's critical for Christians to embrace the Jewish Messiah, Yeshua, not only for personal salvation but as the key to seeing Israel's spiritual awakening. This awakening is part of the fulfillment of prophecy and an integral part of God's end-time plan.

He points to several alarming signs of the approaching end times. The threat of nuclear weapons, particularly in the hands of nations that harbor hatred toward Israel, is a glaring indicator of the perilous times in which we live. Schneider expresses deep concern that these weapons, coupled with the escalating global animosity toward Israel, signal the nearing of Christ's return. Hatred against God's chosen people has always been a hallmark of the last days, and today's geopolitical landscape is no exception.

“Number one is the fact that so many other countries outside the U.S. have access to nuclear power or are getting close to having it,” Schneider says. “Rogue countries, countries that hate America, that hate Israel.”

Schneider also points to the rise of artificial intelligence and the vastness of media as another sign of the coming end.

“I do believe that this age of information technology that we’re speaking a lot of today is really critical,” Schneider says. “When they asked Jesus about the end, the first thing that Jesus spoke of was deception.”

Rabbi Schneider’s message highlights the urgency of our times, with rising global tensions and growing hatred toward Israel signaling the approaching fulfillment of biblical prophecy. As we witness these events unfolding, Schneider challenges believers to act now, standing in prayer and preparedness for what’s to come.
