

Shots Fired in Washington High School

Police and fire crews responded to a high school near Spokane, Washington, on Wednesday after shots were fired, a police spokeswoman said.

The spokeswoman declined to say if there were any injuries in the shooting at Freeman High School or if a suspect was in custody. Spokane Public Schools said on Twitter that all schools in the district were placed on lockdown as a precaution. {eo}

© 2017 Thomson Reuters. All rights reserved.