

Silence from Obama, Schumer Jeffries on Harris Endorsement Amid Democratic Turmoil

President's Biden announcement that he will step down from the race got mostly positive reactions from Democratic leaders from across the political spectrum. Liberal California Governor Gavin Newsom, moderate Kentucky Governor Andy Beshear and Squad member Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez are all backing Harris.

Breaking News. Spirit-Filled Stories. Subscribe to Charisma on YouTube now!

Massachusetts Sen. Ed Markey said, "Kamala Harris as our Democratic nominee is going to bring an x-factor."

Former Democratic National Committee Chairwoman Donna Brazile said, "She's been hitting the campaign trail hard. She's been raising money. So I'm confident that she will have the delegates, she will have the resources."

Get your FREE CHARISMA NEWSLETTERS today! Stay up-to-date with current issues, Holy Spirit news, Christian teachings, Charisma videos & more!

Conspicuously absent so far have been Harris endorsements from Barack and Michelle Obama and Democratic leaders on Capitol Hill, including Senate Majority Leader Chuck Schumer and House Minority Leader Hakeem Jeffries.

Republican presidential candidate Donald Trump said Sunday he thinks Harris will be easier to defeat in November's election than Joe Biden.

To pre-order Troy Anderson's new book, "The Trump Code," visit .

Kamala Harris was California's first female attorney general, making headlines for enacting criminal justice reform, before going onto the Senate.

And RNC Spokeswoman Elizabeth Pipko says Harris's record will be a liability. "Look her record in California is one of the things she'll have to answer for. There's that weak record. There's also the record of this administration, the policies they put forth that are proving not to be popular with the American people," she said.

To read the full story, visit our content partners at CBN News.

Reprinted with permission from . Copyright © 2024 The Christian Broadcasting Network Inc. All rights reserved.

Join Charisma Magazine Online to follow everything the Holy Spirit is doing around the world!