

Social Sanctuary

Looking for a spiritual alternative where you can fellowship online with those of faith? A new Christian social network is gathering people who call Jesus Lord. Dubbed , the online community offers free profiles for Christians who want to meet new friends, arrange Bible study groups and search for Christian resources. The site also invites business owners, churches, ministries and organizations to create listings and classifieds on the network.