

Strange Truth: Psychic Calls THIS Demoniac?

Perhaps one of the strangest things ever just happened.

After the Remnant Revival Outreach Center peacefully worshipped and preached the gospel outside of two so-called “metaphysical” stores in Orlando, one of the psychics recorded a video, completely twisting and deceiving the situation. Her claim? That worship music is somehow demonic.

“They just bully and intimidate and try to use their dogma to prove their superiority and their right to the creator, the source, and they don’t have it,” the psychic, Misti Miller, claims.

Miller mischaracterized their songs of worship as “demonic.” Remnant Revival Outreach Center’s leader, Richard Lorenzo Jr., responded with love and truth. Contrary to Miller’s claim, the lyrics “fire on my altar” is not meant as oppressive nor against spiritualists, it is actually about igniting a passion for God in the hearts of people.

Richard Lorenzo Jr.’s new book, “What’s the Purpose of Life?” is available at .

“We’re not doing rituals, but we’re going to pray,” Lorenzo says. “We’re going to simply pray and bless Misti and everyone else that the Lord will reveal Himself to them. Because once He does, souls get saved, testimonies are birthed revival breaks out.”
