

Supernatural Trajectory: Frank Amedia Reveals 3 More Epic Occurrences Coming to America This Fall

What comes next for America? That's the question prophet and pastor Frank Amedia is asking in the spirit, and it's the main issue he and I discussed on a recent episode of The Strang Report. He shared with me how God spoke the word "trajectory" to him about three huge events that are on their way for America.

In a recent episode of my other podcast, God, Trump and the 2020 Election, Frank shared about how God showed him a vision he calls the "Hezekiah blast." I wrote about this in a "Strang Report" article as well. Frank told me that the prophet Hezekiah's prayer in 2 Kings 19 has "really become the theme of what we're moving forward into as we enter toward Nov. 3," he said. "And that's what Hezekiah cried out in the Lord. He was in despair; he thought all was lost; he was almost ready to surrender to the enemy.

"And he said, "'The child has been brought to birth, but we don't have enough strength to finish' [see 2 Kings 19:3]," Franks said. "And the Lord said, 'Son, I'm going to send a blast' [see 2 Kings. 19:7a], which is the same word as the breath from the nostrils of God."

Frank said this "blast" was the passing of Supreme Court Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg this past Friday night, Sept. 18, in the early hours of Rosh Hashanah.

But God had still more to show him. Frank said, "The Lord spoke to me and showed me—in a vision as I was praying—a launch of a missile. And the word came to me, 'Trajectory, trajectory.’ Well, as I began to meditate upon that, read some more Scripture about it, I realized that what the Lord was saying was that He had already told us that this was just the beginning of the Hezekiah blast Friday night, and that there would be other epic events, three of them.

“And when I said, ‘More? Three? Why three?’ His answer to me was quite peculiar. He’d never said something like that to me before. He said, ‘Well, son, if you want four, then ask me for four.’ And I was checked in my spirit by the Holy Spirit, because I didn’t know if what I would be asking for. It would be coming from me instead of from Him.

“And I said, ‘I fear You too much, Lord, no—whatever Your divine providence says.’ And He said, ‘This is on a trajectory. And there will be three more epic occurrences in the short term.’”

Frank says that in October, God will send what he calls a “triple whammy” and that we will see prophetic occurrences fulfilled this fall. “The Judeo-Christian God, the God of the Jews, the God of the evangelicals, the God of all, is pro-life. God is against the shedding of the innocent blood of babies, and God is pro-life. And Stephen, He is going to seal this deal.”

Frank has proven amazingly accurate in his previous prophecies, including the one he personally delivered to President Trump about winning the 2016 election when no one agreed with him that I detail in my book, God, Trump and the 2020 Election. I believe the “blast” the Lord showed him was what God brought us last week with Ginsburg’s death. As I wrote just after Ginsburg’s death, “Ruth Bader Ginsberg accomplished a lot in her career, and she will be remembered as a great American. But her legacy of backing abortion is to her lasting shame, and now that her seat is open, President Trump must fill it right away.”
