

Texas Couple's Bold Confession for Christ With Lawn Display

A Texas couple on a mission for Jesus is inspiring people "one prayer at a time."

Bernie and Dee Ann Tackitt of Lubbock, Texas, have transformed their entire yard into a respite for those seeking the Lord, with Bernie adding a large cross to his property last year.

But that cross is not just for decoration; it's a place where community members are invited to post their written prayers to the Lord.

"I thought, 'I'm going to make a cross because I want everybody to know I'm – at this point in humanity, I'm going, 'We need to pick a team,'" he said. "And I want everybody [to] know I'm with team Jesus."
