

Get Involved: Jericho March Calls for Election Reform, Integrity and Fair Results

Since Nov. 5, 2020, champions of the faith and followers of Christ have participated in what is known as the Jericho March every day at noon local time. They circle the buildings seven times in peaceful prayer and protest—calling for light to be shed on the corruption of the 2020 presidential election and believing for election integrity and reform.

Weeks of daily and weekend gatherings culminate with “Let the Church ROAR!” marches on Dec. 12 in Washington, D.C., and the swing state capitals of Atlanta, Georgia; Carson City, Nevada; Harrisburg, Pennsylvania; Lansing, Michigan; Madison, Wisconsin; and Phoenix, Arizona. From beginning to end, the peaceful protests are based on the biblical example set forth in Joshua 6, where believers take their petitions to heaven, knowing that God answers prayers and moves mountains.

Attendees will send a clear message to national and state leaders as they hear patriots and people of faith roar in support of election integrity, transparency and reform. The prayer rally will feature national faith leaders, worship leaders and others.

The march also calls all patriots and people of faith to contact local, state and national officials and demand full audits, that any and all fraudulent and illegal activities are exposed and that only legal votes are counted to reveal the true will of the American people in this election. It has already engaged over 700,000 concerned people, and they will continue circling their capitol buildings in all 50 states daily at noon until Dec. 14. The marches will continue until the Electoral College votes on the election in Washington,

D.C.

To learn more about the united effort, watch the video below, visit and follow the movement on Twitter, Facebook, Instagram and YouTube.