

The Tragedy Many Believers Struggle With in Their Relationship With Christ

The Western church today lacks true biblical teaching and understanding on the glorious reality of the Trinity. This was a theological staple for the first church but has been lost in translation over the centuries.

Sadly, many believers struggle with an ability to relate with God on a personal level, and they live with a warped perception of who God is and the roles of Father, Son and Spirit in our everyday lives.

This revelation of the Trinity isn't meant to be a dusty theological topic that only seminaries teach on. It is the very core of who we are and the central theme of our existence. We were born for relationship and union with the Godhead, and they long to share their life with us. The beauty of the Trinity runs like a river through the fiber of all creation. Once we wake up to this revelation of who God truly is, we become invigorated and intoxicated at His true beauty and glory.

On the latest episode of Awaken Podcast, I speak with theologian C. Baxter Kruger about his book, The Great Dance, which explores the Trinity in depth and the purpose of all creation within the context of our relationship with our triune God. This episode is rich with revelation, and it will give you a fresh perspective of who God is that will reinvigorate your relationship with Him.
