

This Sunday! 'Moms for Trump' Rally in Washington, D.C.

Kimberly Fletcher, founder and president of Moms for America®, and Moms for America Action announced MFA Action will hold a "Moms for Trump Rally" in Washington, D.C., on Sunday, Nov. 1, at 2:00pm ET in front of the Supreme Court Building.

Moms for America Action plans for this rally to be one last final push before Election Day and invites moms to unite in Washington, D.C., or wherever they are, to celebrate freedom and thank the president for defending it. Moms who can't attend in person can rally in their own communities. Moms will gather across from the U.S. Capitol in front of the Supreme Court Building at 2:00 p.m ET. There will be a short rally, and then the moms will walk in a patriotic parade, kids in tow, to the White House. Moms are encouraged to post videos and livestreams using: #MomsForTrump #MomsForAmerica #OneNationUnited.

"This is the voice of the silent majority of mothers in America," says Kimberly Fletcher, mother of eight and founder and president of Moms for America. "If you're a woman who loves God, respects life, reveres family and cherishes freedom, we invite you to join us!"

"We are the new media," says Fletcher. "We're tired of being silenced by Big Tech and ignored by liberal media. On Nov. 1 moms are uniting to share our vision of the future—the America we want for our children, and to support the president who is making that future a reality."

Who: Moms for America and Moms for America Action invite every America-loving woman: Moms, grandmoms, and bring the kids!

What: "Moms for Trump Rally."

Where: Supreme Court Building, Washington, D.C., then walk to the White House.

When: 2:00pm ET, Sunday, Nov. 1.

Why: To unite in person, and in spirit with others nationwide, to support President Trump.
