

Thousands Saved During 2-Day Greg Laurie Idaho Crusade

The Boise Harvest event at the Extra Mile Arena was jam-packed with prayer and worship last weekend as Pastor Greg Laurie spoke about the purest love and hope that is only found in Jesus Christ.

Pastor Laurie with Harvest Christian Fellowship in Riverside, California, called the two-day event “amazing” with 21,500 in attendance and another 144,013 that joined online.

And more than 3,000 people responded when Laurie invited them to commit their lives to Christ.

The longtime pastor reminded attendees and online viewers that the outreach “is not about religion ... this is about having your life transformed by Jesus Christ.”

Aubrey, who attended the event with her mother, was among the many who were moved by Pastor Laurie’s words.

“Whenever he said, ‘are you sure you’re going to go to heaven,’ I wasn’t sure. I mean, I believe in Jesus, but I didn’t know for sure. And it’s just kind of been in the back of my mind lately, and he gave me an opportunity and I was like, I should take it. I’m stoked ... I’m really happy,” she explained.

Alana came out on the second worship night and called the experience “a miracle.”
