

Tom Horn: Multiple Antichrist Prophecies Are Coming to a Head

Popular headlines today are fulfilling prophecies, but not just the ones specifically foretold in the Bible.

“How ironic it is that while we see what’s happening with ISIS and their apocalyptic vision and what’s happening in the Middle East,” author Tom Horn tells Jim Bakker.

“And look at all these other prophecies, like the burden of Damascus, and all these other things that could unfold as a result of these conflicts, isn’t it interesting that you also have people of other faith, including the Jews, who believe the Messiah is about to appear?” Horn says.

It appears many people of faith throughout time believed the Antichrist would appear in 2016. Why? Watch the video to see.