Jonathan Cahn: 'The Fig Tree Is Beginning to Blossom Again'

If you are at all familiar with the Bible, Jonathan Cahn says, you're familiar with the story of Jesus cursing the fig tree in Matthew 21. Jesus cursed the fig tree because He was hungry and found no fruit on it, only leaves.

Cahn said in a recent sermon there is a parallel between the fig tree and Israel, which for nearly two millennia, failed to produce the spiritual fruit that God so dearly desired. But then came the reestablishment of Israel as a nation in 1948, and Cahn says that the tree has returned.

And, he says, it—meaning Israel—is beginning to grow as God intended.

AI's Role in the Future of Christianity and Spreading the Gospel

In a rapidly changing world, Prophet Tomi Arayomi, a prominent voice in the Christian community, sheds light on the intersection of faith and technology in a recent interview with Charisma News.

Arayomi is urging Christians to harness the power of AI, emphasizing that the era of artificial intelligence is here, and there's no turning back.

Arayomi is currently leading a course called "Target," designed to equip Christians with the skills to utilize AI or risk becoming obsolete in the job market. He stresses that the impact of AI on various professions is undeniable since AI is advancing at an unprecedented pace, learning and adapting independently.

Tim Sheets Prophecy Being Fulfilled With Horrific Shaking of Israel

Apostle Tim Sheets says there has never been a prophetic word downloaded to him that he wishes he had missed more than this one.

In early June, Sheets prophesied that a great shaking would come to the nations later in the year. And, he says, he doesn't know of any greater sign that this is a shaking taking place than "the covenant nation with Almighty God, Israel, declaring war."

Shortly after Oct. 7, when Hamas launched a shocking and unexpected attack on Israel, the Israeli government declared war on the terrorist organization. The war continues to rage today (Oct. 17) and promises to become even more intense the coming days.

What Happens to Believers After the Rapture?

In a recent interview with Bishop Alan DiDio, Pastor Jimmy Evans delves into the profound concept of the Tribulation and the significance of comprehending the timing of the rapture in Christian eschatology.

With an emphasis on bringing clarity to these end times questions facing many believers today, Evans provides a compelling perspective that instills a sense of hope within the Christian community.

The Tribulation: A Time of Unimaginable Chaos

Evans paints a vivid picture of the Tribulation, describing it as a period of unparalleled suffering and upheaval. Drawing from biblical passages, he stresses that the Tribulation will be nothing short of “hell on Earth.” He cites scriptural references from the book of Revelation to depict the gruesome judgments and calamities that will befall humanity during this period.

JERUSALEM, ISRAEL – As the situation here in Israel goes from bad to worse, and the death toll and number of wounded continues to climb on both sides of the border, Christians around the world are sending me great questions via email, text message, WhatsApp, and Twitter’s Direct Messaging.

Christian leaders, journalists, and broadcasters also asking me during radio, TV, digital, and print interviews, and on podcasts.

Above all, they want to know not just what’s happening moment to moment but where is this all going and what it all means from a biblical perspective. {eo}
