

Top of the Week: The Antichrist Is on the Move

How Globalism, One-World Government Are Preparing the Way for the Antichrist

The Antichrist is on the move. And the rise of globalism and the one-world government is preparing the way.

So says Charles Crismier, founder of Save America, whose most recent book, Antichrist: How to Identify the Coming Imposter, gives details of the current cultural and political climate and how it relates to the end times.

Crismier says in 1950, John Paul Warburg addressed Congress and declared, "We will have world government whether you want it or not. We'll either have it by you going along with it or by force." And in 1990, President George H.W. Bush declared in a joint session of Congress, "We are now entering the birth pangs of a new global world order." Throughout his presidency, he would repeat those chilling words 200 times, Crismier says.

All this leads up to more recent times. Both President Bill and Hillary Clinton are what Crismier calls "consummate globalists." And during the most recent presidential election, he says, Germany 's Prime Minister Angela Merkel "declared that Donald Trump had totally destroyed and frustrated the new world order."

1990 Kenneth Hagin Prophecy Points to Dangers of False Prophets and Apostles

I believe there's been much error through the overemphasis of apostles and prophets today. We use the words "apostolic" and "prophetic" loosely and even irreverently in this day and age. Many ministers today love to tell you what they are instead of letting the fruit of their ministries tell you what they are.

Many insist on being called by their titles.

The words “apostolic” and “prophetic” need a vacation, especially in Pentecostal/charismatic circles. The following prophecy was given over 30 years ago by Kenneth Hagin, but it’s much more prevalent now. Please read it carefully and heed its words. There is both great wisdom and warning in it.

Mike Lindell Announces New Social Media Platform, ‘Frank’

After his social media accounts were shut down for “violating policies,” conservative MyPillow founder and CEO Mike Lindell has released exclusive information about his new platform: “Frank.”

“I am getting ready to launch Frank, and it is going to be a place where we can talk freely, put out our influence and give people hope,” Lindell says. One aspect of the platform will be dedicated to investigation regarding the 2020 election. “We have hired the best investigators and resources and are working hard to backtrack the various aspects of the election,” Lindell says.

In a time of nationwide discouragement, Lindell is confident that America is returning to its biblical roots, and he believes once past certain challenges going to the Supreme Court, “we will demonstrate massive international involvement in the recent election.” This fact, Lindell says, regardless of party affiliation, should be at the forefront of Americans’ minds.

Larry Tomczak’s Week in Review: Biggest Blunders That Will Blow Biden, Cuomo and Newsom Out of Office

“Who will rise up for me against the wicked? Who will stand up for me against those who do iniquity? ... Shall wicked rulers, who make oppressive laws, align with You? They conspire together against the life of the righteous and condemn innocent blood to death” (Ps. 94:16, 20-21).

Policies of politicians legislating killing babies, immoral conduct, LGBTQ deception, corruption, division and socialism cannot be left unaddressed by the people of God today. Charles Spurgeon called it “the sin of doing nothing.”

BREAKING: Jeremiah Johnson Reveals the Revelation Behind His Ministry Shift and the Cost of His Obedience

His name and his story appeared on all the major Christian news websites and even some of the secular ones. Multiple media representatives requested interviews.

But what catapulted Prophet Jeremiah Johnson to fame was not a victory but an admission of failure and a heartfelt apology. As one of the many prophets who foretold a Trump win in the 2020 election, he came forward on Jan. 6 to ask forgiveness and share the additional news that he was shutting down one ministry and starting another. That decision, he says, has come at a great cost. In the first media interview he’s granted since that decision and those events, he shares his thoughts, the surprising way Christians have responded to his decision and what he sees ahead for himself and his new ministry. {eoa}

Follow breaking news like this and more in our new platform, CHARISMA PLUS.