

Trump a Nazi? New Poll Finds 66% of Israelis Want Trump Re-elected Because He's Good for Israel and Jews, While Only 17% Want Harris

JERUSALEM, ISRAEL—Vice President Kamala Harris has chosen to close the 2024 presidential campaign by denouncing her opponent, Donald J. Trump, as a 'Nazi' and a 'fascist' who is 'dangerous' for America and for democracy.

It's a shrill and hysterical message.

It's also wrong and dangerous.

I don't agree with Trump on everything he has said and done in recent years, as I have reported on ALL ISRAEL NEWS.

As I have also reported on this website, I believe President Joe Biden and his VP have done some things right and well in recent years.

But let's be clear: Trump has been the target of not just one but two assassination attempts in recent months.

The vitriolic language of Harris, Democrats, and the so-called "progressive" Left is incredibly irresponsible because it risks inciting more political violence.

I don't think such verbal attacks are going to work to defeat Trump next Tuesday.

However, I am concerned that such incendiary language could lead to more assassination attempts.

Here in the Promised Land, Israelis are making their voices heard loud and clear.

Their message: "Donald Trump is not a Nazi!"

On the contrary, Israelis believe Trump is their best friend and would be the best American Commander-in-Chief to help the Jewish state fight Iranian Nazis, Hezbollah Nazis, Hamas Nazis, Houthi Nazis, and all radical Islamist Nazis throughout the Middle East and North Africa who want to annihilate Israel and the Jewish people.

To that point, a new poll conducted for Israel's Channel 12 shows how strongly Israelis want Trump—not Harris—to lead the United States for the next four years.

The poll, just released yesterday, finds that 66% of Israelis hope that Trump is elected President of the United States next Tuesday.

Only 17% want Harris to be elected.

Thus, we don't endorse political candidates here in Israel, in the United States, or anywhere else.

We do, however, report and analyze the news.

And the latest headline here is that Israelis have rejected the Harris accusation that Donald Trump is a Nazi and a fascist.

No one in Israel, Iran, or the Arab/Muslim world knows who is going to win next week.

But many are watching the race closely—perhaps more closely than any U.S. presidential election in history.

Not only are they watching, but in Israel at least they have drawn their conclusions on whom they believe would be best to protect Israeli security and advance peace and prosperity in the Epicenter.

Are they right?

Come what may, ALL ISRAEL NEWS will cover the race and results fairly and accurately for Evangelical Christians and all who want a media platform they can trust.
