

Trump Honors Heroic 13-Year-Old Cancer Survivor in Powerful Moment

During a joint session of Congress on Mar. 4, President Donald Trump honored 13-year-old Devarjaye “DJ” Daniel, a brain cancer survivor, by appointing him as an honorary Secret Service agent. Diagnosed in 2018 with a prognosis of five months to live, DJ has defied the odds and pursued his dream of joining law enforcement.

I had the pleasure of showing DJ Daniel around the United States Capitol in December 2022.

Tonight, President Trump made him an honorary member of the Secret Service.

Congratulations, DJ! You make Texas proud.

During the address, President Trump introduced DJ, who was seated in the gallery wearing a Houston police uniform, alongside his father. The President highlighted DJ’s resilience and commitment to his dream, stating, “Since that time, DJ and his dad have been on a quest to make his dream come true.”

In a heartfelt moment, President Trump invited Secret Service Director Sean Curran to officially appoint DJ as an honorary Secret Service agent.

“Tonight, DJ, we’re going to do you the biggest honor of them all...I am asking our new Secret Service Director, Sean Curran, to officially make you an agent of the United States,” Trump stated.
