

Trump Issues Warning to Hamas: 'Do What Is Right'

President Donald Trump is giving Hamas a major warning, telling them that they must abide by the peace agreement they promised to comply with.

Posting to Truth Social, the president wrote:

Numerous of our NOW GREAT ALLIES in the Middle East, and areas surrounding the Middle East, have explicitly and strongly, with great enthusiasm, informed me that they would welcome the opportunity, at my request, to go into GAZA with a heavy force and "straighten our Hamas" if Hamas continues to act badly, in violation of their agreement with us.

He also noted that there is something beautiful happening in the Middle East right now, of genuine love and good spirits being lifted up.

The love and spirit for the Middle East has not been seen like this in a thousand years! It is a beautiful thing to behold! I told these countries, and Israel, "NOT YET!"

President Trump then gave Hamas the ultimatum to "Do what is right."
