

Unite714 Prayer Initiative Announces Live Worldwide Online Prayer Event on Pentecost

The leadership team behind the global prayer initiative “Unite714” has announced a worldwide online prayer event as well as a television special featuring an international lineup of Christian leaders. The purpose of both events is to encourage believers around the globe to unite in prayer for the eradication of COVID-19 and a spiritual awakening around the world. Unite714 is based on the Scripture from 2 Chronicles 7:14 (NKJV) that God will intervene in this challenging crisis:

“If my people who are called by my name will humble themselves, and pray and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and forgive their sin and heal their land.”

Launched in March 2020, the Unite714 movement has grown into a worldwide phenomenon in a remarkably short time—to include millions of believers and thousands of churches in 178 countries. The movement can be found online at www.unite714.com.

International Christian leaders such as Brian Houston, Christine Caine, Dr. Goodwill Shana, Chris Hodges, Nicky Gumbel, Miles McPherson, Robert Morris, Jentezen Franklin, Carlito Paes, Daniel Ho, Carlito Paes, and Rich and DawnChéré Wilkerson are involved with Unite714. Many others have endorsed the initiative and encouraged churches and individual Christians to pray every day at 7:14 a.m. and 7:14 p.m.

The global webcast will happen on Friday, May 29 (Pentecost weekend) at 10 a.m. Central Daylight Time (U.S.) and will be broadcast on various Christian television channels throughout that weekend and the following week. You can find out more on the movement's website at .
