

Victory Prayer: 'Thank You for Choosing President Donald Trump'

"If My people, who are called by My name, will humble themselves and pray, and seek My face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and will heal their land," (2 Chron. 7:14).

As the nation is about to witness the inauguration of President Donald Trump, an outpouring of prayer and blessing have already surrounded the new administration.

Popular YouTube influencers Angela Halili and Arielle Reitsma prayed at Trump's victory rally prior his inauguration.

"Thank you for choosing President Donald Trump," says Reitsma. "I pray that you would protect his mind and guard his heart. I pray that you would place a shield around our president, his family and upon this nation. That when opposition comes his way, may you provide angelic protection wherever he goes. May he stand firm in know the Lord is his refuge in whom he can trust."

Beyond personal protection, the prayer extends to the nation itself, seeking healing, unity and a revival of love.

"President Donald Trump, we say that you will succeed and America will yet again prosper," she continues.

Halili prayed for a turning and repentance toward Christ, sharing the heart of 2 Chronicles 7:14, that we must be a people seeking after the Lord, turning from our wicked ways and believing for revival.

“Lord, I ask that you would release your power upon this nation. I pray this country be washed by your blood, your precious blood. I pray that a holy fire would rain down to produce a move of purity and holiness in this nation,” Halili prays. “I pray an Acts 2 outpouring of the Holy Spirit and a mighty move of God to take place in America like we have never seen before.”

As President Trump steps into his role as the 47th president, let's join in with Reitsma and Halili as a people united in prayer for God's guidance and blessing on the nation.
