

VIDEO: True Faith Shown During Joplin Tornado

In the wake of the deadly tornado that ripped through Joplin, Mo., many inspirational videos have been posted online that demonstrate the protective hand of God. While the death toll continues to rise and we might not know the exact number of those killed for several days to come, the videos posted below are true testaments of faith.

Instead of letting the intensity of the situation get to her, this woman calmly prays to Jesus while huddling with others during the violent storm.

Bethany Lansaw's husband, Don, was one of those killed in the F5 tornado. Don lost his life while protecting hers inside their Joplin home.
