

Viral Photo Shows Boy Making Intercession Over Homeless Man

Baltimore made headlines for riots and violence, but the heart of the city continues to shine through.

Take this young man, who refused to ignore a homeless man asleep on the sidewalk. He dropped to one knee and extended a hand, bowing his head in prayer.

The moment was captured by Jonathan A. Stormz.

“I watched as this young kid was walking pass, stopped and walked over to this sleeping homeless man; touched him and began praying over him... This was an amazing sight! I pray this kid becomes a leader amongst his peers, and continues on this path!! Not all Baltimore youth are lost!!”
