

Wait, What?! Hollywood Stuns Audiences With Rare Pro-Family Message!

Perhaps there is a shift in the atmosphere in Hollywood.

Last night's Oscars were filled of much of the same thing we see over and over, with the elites praising and glorifying themselves. However, there was one speech by Kieran Culkin that caught the attention of conservatives as a light in the darkness.

Culkin gave lots of credit in his speech to his wife, Jazz, discussed how much he loves her and how the two had made a deal that if he won an Oscar they could have more children. His excitement to grow his family was visible to all in the audience, and his heartwarming care for his loved ones was quite opposite from what has been the spiel of Hollywood for decades.

"I have to thank my wife, Jazz, for absolutely everything," Culkin says.

Conservative commentator Charlie Kirk took to X where he noted that "...this moment between Kieran Culkin and his wife Jazz is great. This is the most pro-family acceptance speech you'll hear from Hollywood."

“Heartmwarming, authentic pro-parenthood message at the Oscars!? I must be hallucinating,” Benny Johnson wrote on X.

While the entertainment industry has long been a platform for self-indulgence and fleeting ideals, moments like Kieran Culkin’s speech remind us that God’s design for family remains a powerful and enduring truth.

Scripture tells us that “children are a heritage from the Lord, the fruit of the womb a reward,” (Ps. 127:3). In a culture that often devalues marriage and parenthood, Culkin’s heartfelt words serve as a refreshing testimony to the goodness of family—a reflection of God’s love and His perfect plan for humanity. Perhaps, even in the most unexpected places, the Lord is moving, and the light of His truth is breaking through.
