

Was the Case of the Mystery Drones Solved?

Has the case of the mystery drones finally been solved?

Earlier today the White House finally discussed what was behind the mysterious drones that started overtaking New Jersey and New York.

According to Fox News, White House press secretary Karoline Leavitt gave an update from the president, which explained where the drones came from.

"After research and study, the drones that were flying over New Jersey in large numbers were authorized by the FAA for research and various other reasons," says Leavitt.

Leavitt also reassured Americans that the drones were not a threat to citizens. It was determined that other personal drones owned by individuals were used at this time as well.

"Many of these drones were also hobbyists, recreational and private individuals that enjoy flying drones. And in time, it got worse due to curiosity. This was not the enemy," Leavitt says, according to Yahoo News.

While we may wonder why the Biden administration did not speak up about the drone sightings sooner and their purpose, perhaps the case of the mysterious drones has finally been solved once and for all. For Christians, this is an opportunity to continue to pray for the safety of our nation as we never know what kinds of security issues we may find ourselves in.
