"On July 24, I was woken up at 7:18 a.m., and I saw this vision of men in...you call it Wall Street," Arayomi said. And they were yelling 'the Dow Jones; what happened to the Dow Jones?' And it was as if overnight a thief had broken in and stolen, and all of a sudden I saw the Dow begin to plummet."

Arayomi shared that after he decided to share about this dream publicly, he saw shortly after that the notifications on his phone began to buzz with the panic that the stock market was plummeting.

Arayomi brought up the fact that we are now in a time of judgement so that we can understand what true, godly righteousness means.

"When we see judgement, it forces us back into, 'oh my goodness, we got to get back into alignment with God.' So, even in God's judgement there's a purpose to it," Arayomi said.

Arayomi further believes this is a time when darkness is approaching, and it is the job of Christians to prepare and to expectantly seek and wait upon the Lord. Just as darkness fell upon Egypt but did not harm the Israelites, Arayomi believes that we too can be protected and trust in the Lord's goodness and presence during this time.

"Moses stretched out his hand toward heaven, and there was thick darkness in all the land of Egypt [for] three days," Arayomi said. "But all the children of Israel have light in their dwellings."

"I believe that it's a prophetic hour to build Goshen. They were in Goshen at that time. What is Goshen? Goshen is a place—supernatural—the mix of supernatural supply and biblical wisdom. It's a place where the church begins to go. In Moses' day, they experienced the miracles of Goshen. In Joseph's day, they experienced the principles of Goshen...I believe we're going to see supernatural provision," Arayomi continued.

Psalm 23 is a reminder that even when we walk through the darkest of valleys, we have nothing to be afraid because God is with us. While the U.S. and world economy may be on the brink of collapse and the state of political affairs seems uncertain, God stays with His people at all times. Let's press into His holiness and righteousness during these uncertain times.
