

WATCH: 920-Pound Minister Gets New Lease on Life—and Does This

40-year-old minister Freddie Combs almost died in 2009. He weighed 920 pounds, which is beyond morbid obesity.

But God gave him a new lease on life and now he's making the most of it. His emotional performance of "The Wind Beneath My Wings" earned him four yeses from judges on The X Factor USA.

Simon Cowell challenged Combs to get strong and healthy enough to sing standing up next time instead of in his wheelchair.
