

WATCH: After Brutal Stabbing Attack, Pastor Returns to Pulpit With Strong Message

Pastor Hugh Mayes has returned to the pulpit after he and his wife, Carol, were brutally attacked in their own home.

Maxim Chisholm, a homeless man who sought refuge in the pastor's church, wielded a knife against the elderly couple in June, nearly killing them both.

Now, Hugh is speaking out on the incident and the role faith has played in their survival. Take a look.
